

LUIGIAN 1969

Gonzaga Prep
and Spokane present

The Luigian
1969

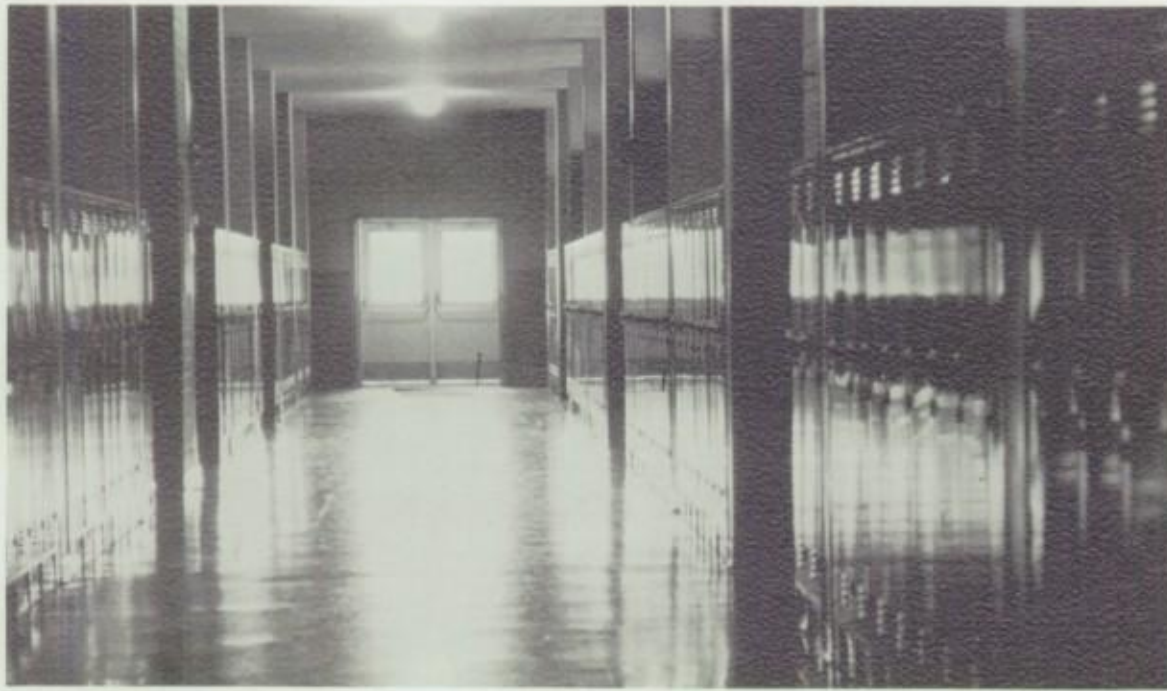

Prep is More . . .

ABOVE: Students arrive from the four corners of the city. RIGHT: They resort to various means to return home.

... More Than a Building

... more than

AT LEFT: Prep students celebrate football victory with dance in the gym. BELOW: Prepsters swing at Holy Name's "Autumn Whirl."

... more than
a name

AT LEFT: Team captain Paul Koenigs shakes hands with captain of North Central team.
BELOW: Prep's debaters prepare for encounter with St. George's squad.

... More Than Students and Faculty

UPPER MIDDLE: Faculty and parents discuss their common problems. LEFT: Fr. Schlim beams at token of cross country runners' esteem. BELOW: Gerard Haag seeks to arrive at workable agreement with Fr. McDonough.

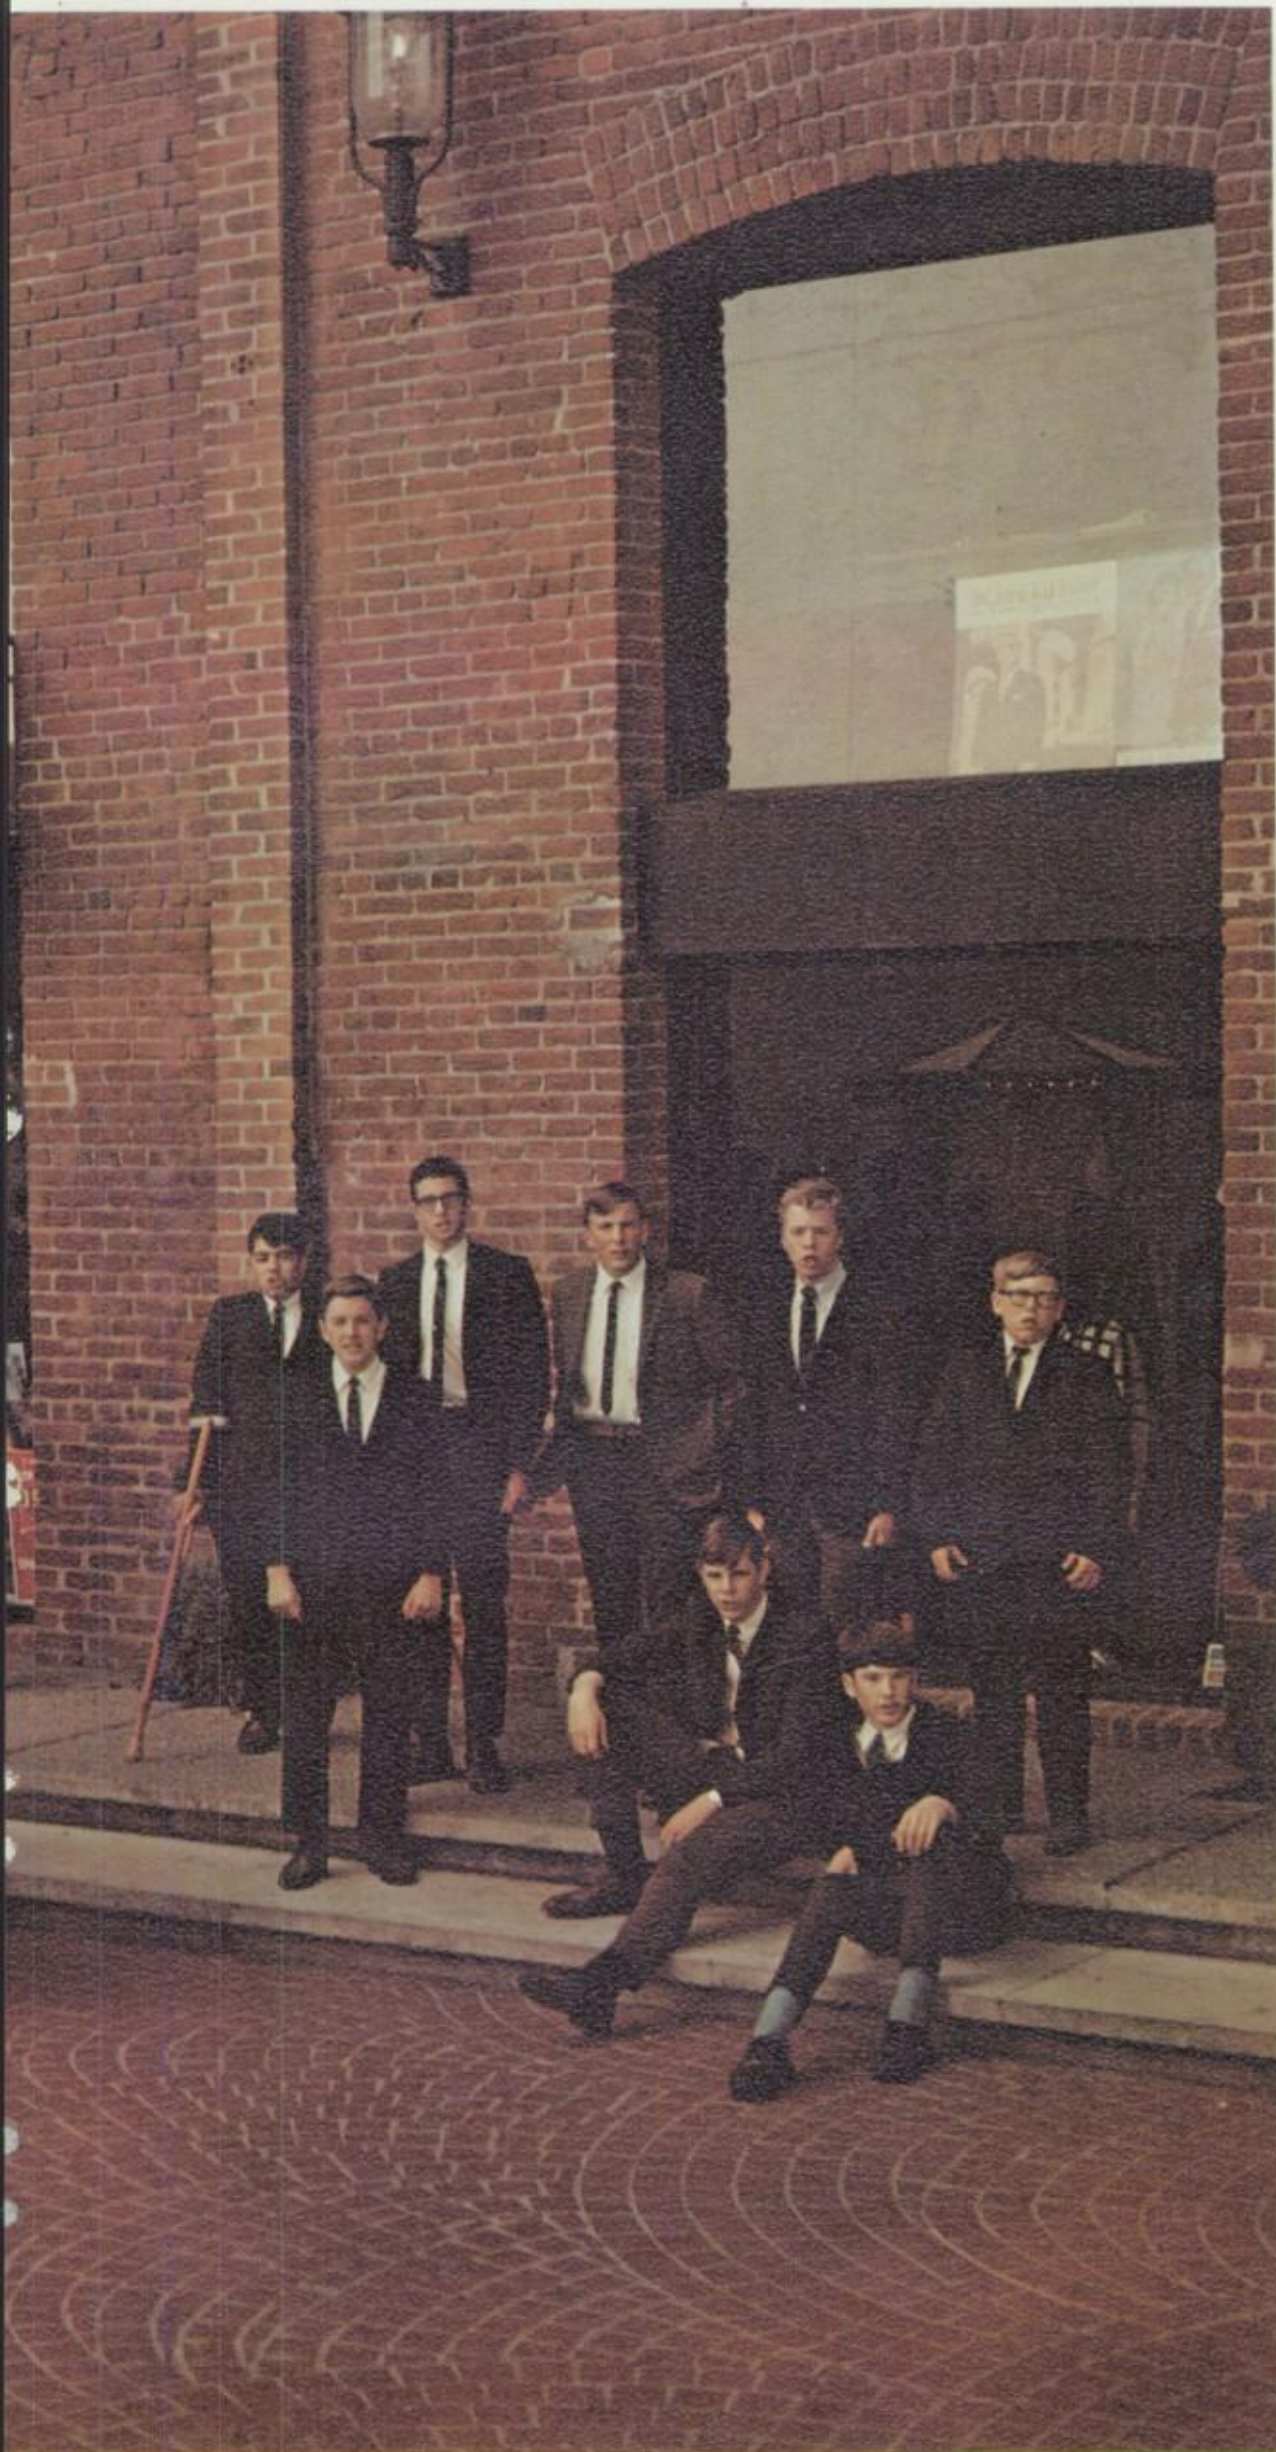

Prep Speaks

Gonzaga IS more than a building; it is more than just a school, more than just students and faculty. In a very real way Prep is Spokane. It is an event, a function of the whole city. Our students come from every corner of Spokane and even beyond. They bring with them the variety of backgrounds found in the different neighborhoods of the city. In its make-up Prep is broader, more cosmopolitan than any school could possibly be which draws its students from one corner of the city only.

We — so tremendously varied in background — come together here and form a wonderful unity in diversity. By encountering and working with each other we receive something that we never could receive by remaining in our own neighborhood. In our variety we work together to form Gonzaga Prep. We become a team, a potent force in everything we do. This force, this voice speaks out in return to every corner of the city.

Our unified achievements touch almost everyone who lives in Spokane. Prep's superior glee club has touched, influenced so many people both inside and outside the city. The message of G-Prep reaches so very many through our publications — the GONZAGAN, the ESPRIT, the LUIGIAN. Through our highly developed spirit of competition we make our presence known to the city. This happens both on the football field and in the debate tournament. It happens on the basketball court and eventually in the college classroom.

The exchange is complete. Each student brings his contribution to the building of Gonzaga. Unity develops between him and his fellows, and this unity speaks to every corner of the city. Just as Prep receives from all of Spokane, it also makes a unique contribution, exerts a valuable influence on the whole of Spokane.

It is an Event . . .

... A Happening

... a force
... a spirit

AT LEFT: Senior retreatants at Waikiki take a break playing touch football. BELOW: Our all-city football cheerleaders.

... a dialogue

Voters of tomorrow demonstrate for their favorite candidate.

... with the whole city.

Before the bright lights of opening night can be enjoyed, the many dark nights of preparation must be endured. Directors, cast, and stage crew donate many hours of spare time in order to insure a professional performance. Lines must be learned, scenes blocked, costumes readied, sets constructed—all with a view to performance dates seemingly far in the future, but suddenly just around the corner. When the lights finally go up, all preparations cease and the audience is treated to a flawless presentation of A MAN FOR ALL SEASONS.

Varsity Regains Title

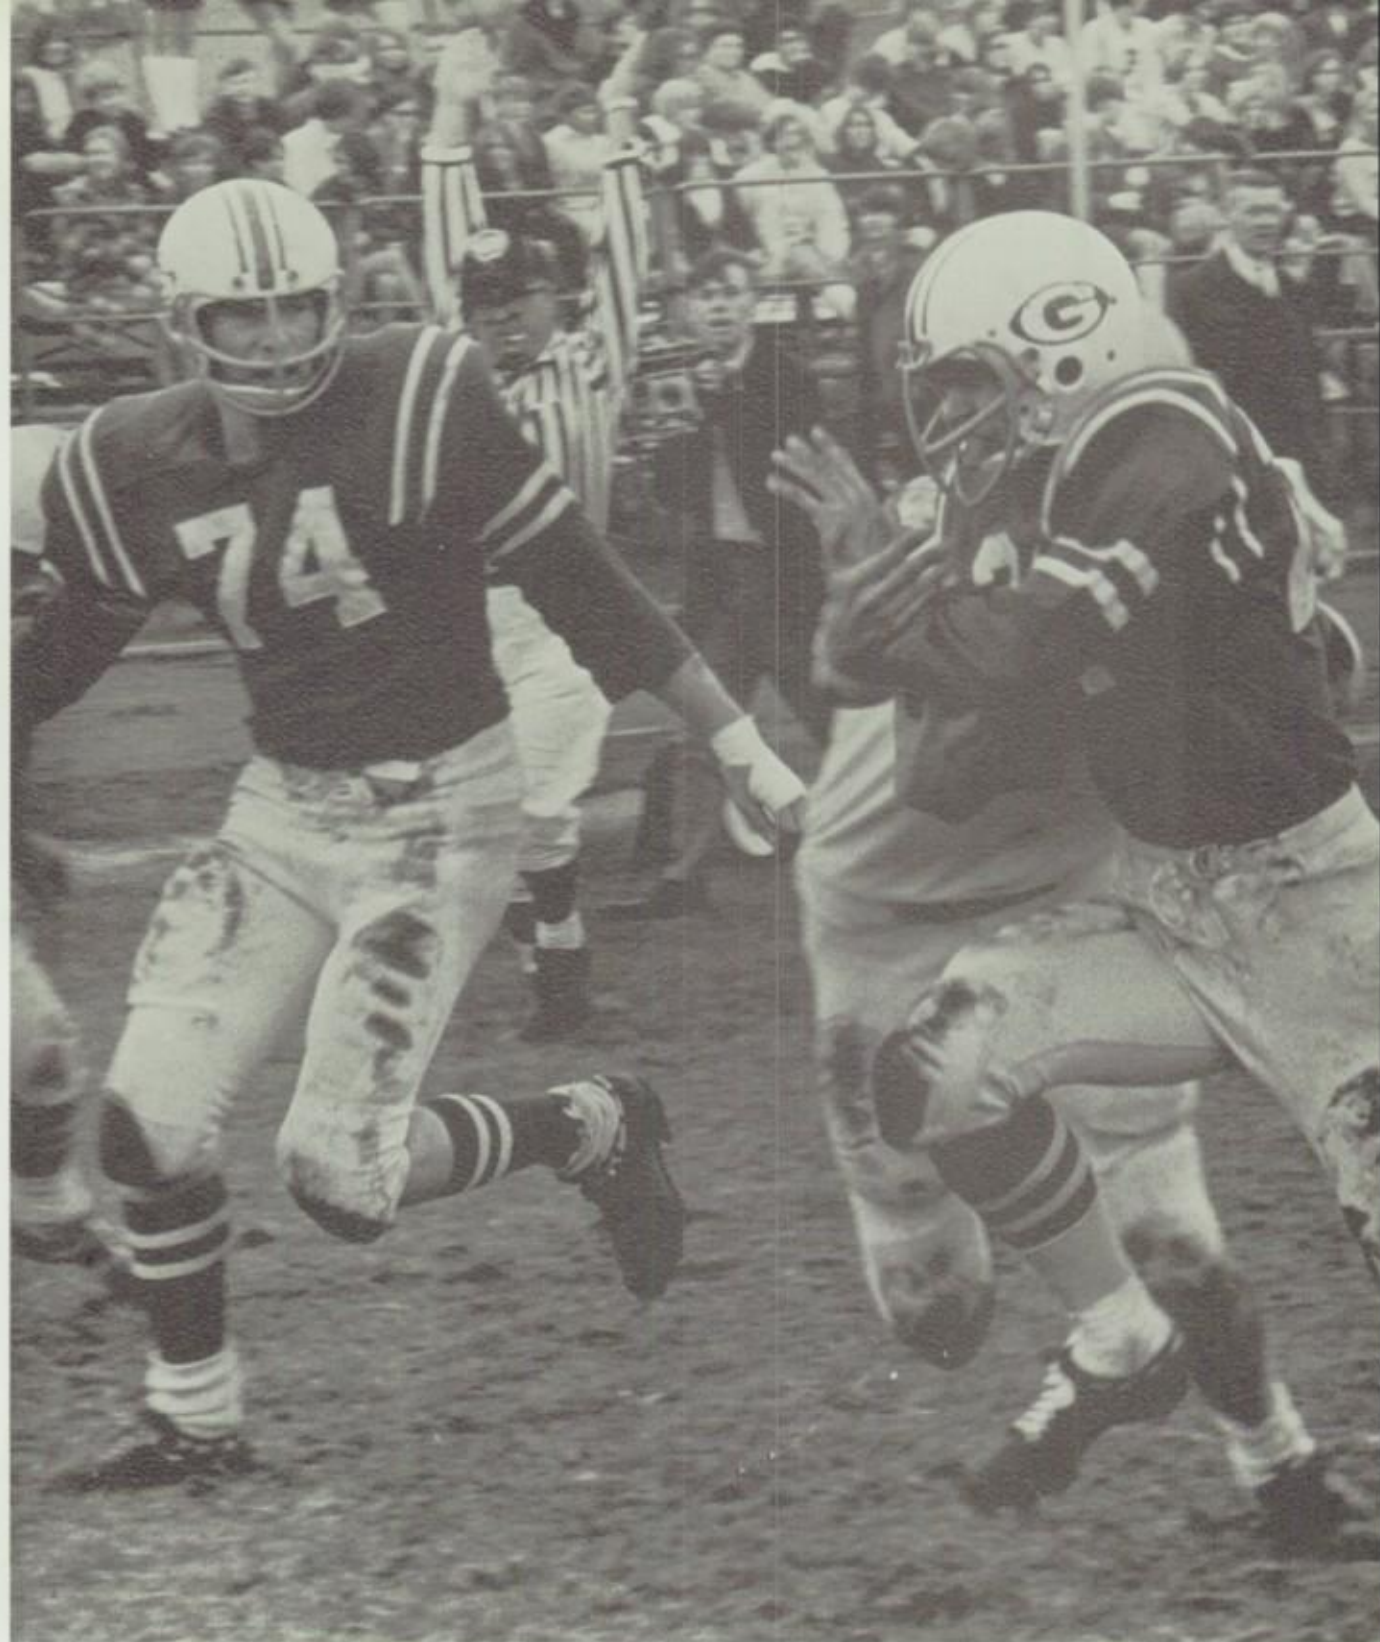

Tim Hare finds running room.

The graduating class will long remember its championship football team of '69. Gonzaga Prep is noted for its outstanding performances on the gridiron. This year was no exception. The spirit and determination of the players was best exemplified by their victory over the Roger Pirates. Although the team had previously lost to Rogers, they did not give up; but they came back to defeat the Pirates thus gaining a share of the City Championship. This is truly a team which has achieved excellence not only for themselves, but for all of Prep.

Coach Mertens beams after another perfect season.

The League was powerful this year; Rogers, Shadle, And L.C. fought the Zags down to the wire. But the Prep spirit would not be outdone. With key players out from injuries, the B-Squad still won seven games for its fourth straight city football title.

The only flaw, a 25-25 tie with L.C., could not keep Coaches Jim Mertens and Dave Schindler, S.J., from inspiring their charges to their thirty-sixth win without a loss. The B-Squad was a shining example to the city of Prep's spirit of excellence.

Ron Hare boots pigskin deep into enemy territory.

John Wark pulls wide around Ferris defense.

Tough Zag defense holds Rogers scoreless.

Freshman footballers at Prep fought hard this year; from a group of raw recruits in September, they progressed to a fairly cohesive unit by season's end. Coaches Tom Dzwiniel and Bart Murphy, S.J., worked hard to help the frosh gain invaluable experience. These men will surely have their impact on Spokane as men of Prep.

Dale Borchers outjumps Rogers' Pirate for rebound.

Prep has always been well known as a football power in Spokane and throughout the state. After getting narrowly edged out by Central Valley last year, the Bullpups came back to win the league championship in basketball, too, and move toward the state tournament. The starting five towered above all opposition, the shortest man on the starting five being 6'3". The record was virtually unblemished except for a narrow defeat at the hands of Shadle.

Death Takes Prep Student

Tragedy struck Gonzaga Prep this year. Death's hand reached in among us and removed from our midst one who stood for so much. Steve Garrison, a Junior, was thoroughly involved in our work, our play, our laughter, our tears, our spirit. His light-hearted cheerfulness was a joy to all who came in contact with him. The picture below indicates how much he was one of us. Here he enters whole-heartedly into the life of Spirit Day. Spirit was a well known commodity to Steve. The food drive found him scouring the entire city. His zeal for Prep and the poor of Spokane led him to bring in the second largest amount of food for Room 79, the room that captured the school championship. Steve's presence and sudden departure left a profound impression on us all. His funeral here at Prep was one of the most significant events of the school year. It commemorated one who has gone home. One whom we will remember for years to come.

The Senior Class Salutes Fr. Schlim

The graduating class of 1969 would like to take this opportunity to express and demonstrate our appreciation and respect for a man who, in our estimation, has exemplified all of the qualities necessary for a fine educator: dedication, friendliness, discipline, awareness, and an insatiable desire to help not only the members of this year's graduating class but also every student with whom he comes in contact.

The man we wish to honor is known not only throughout the class of '69 but also throughout the school both as an excellent teacher and coach and as an all-around fantastic individual. The graduating class of '69 wishes to set aside this page in honor of Father Robert J. Schlim, S.J.—a man who has created a lasting impression of gratitude and affection within every senior with his sincere efforts to guide each one of us in the growing process.

Father—you will always remain a part of our fondest memories of our days at Prep.
